Happy New Year

Here's to a brand new year of good health, good fortune, and good times. Thanks for bringing in the New Year with us here at Tower 41. We feel fortunate to have you all as our residents.

Toasting To a New Year

Toasts have existed for almost as long as drinking itself. To help you bring in the New Year properly, here are some great Irish toasts.

- In the New Year, may your right hand always be stretched out in friendship but never in want.
- May you be in heaven a full half hour before the devil knows you're dead.
- May you be poor in misfortune, rich in blessings, slow to make enemies, quick to make friends. But rich or poor, quick or slow, may you know nothing but happiness from this day forward.
- May the roof above us never fall in, and may we friends gathered below never fall out.
- Here's to you and yours and to mine and ours, and if mine and ours ever come across you and yours, I hope you and yours will do as much for mine and ours as mine and ours have done for you and yours.
- May you have warm words on a cold evening, a full moon on a dark night, and the road downhill all the way to your door.
- May the Lord keep you in his hand and never close his fist too tight on you.

Tower 41 Newsletter

If you have anything special you would like to share with the residents of the Tower 41 Condominium, please let the manager know by the last day of each month so we can include it in the following month's newsletter.

Things That Make You Go “HMMMMM.....”

- If you throw a cat out a car window, does it become kitty litter?
- If you choke a Smurf, what color does it turn?
- What do chickens think we taste like?
- What do you call a male ladybug?
- What hair color do they put on the driver’s license of a bald man?
- When dog food is new and improved tasting, who tests it?
- When they first invented the clock, how did they know what time it was to set it to?
- Which is the other side of the street?
- Why didn’t Noah swat those two mosquitoes?
- Why doesn’t glue stick to the inside of the bottle?
- Why don’t they call mustaches “mouthbrows?”

T'was the month after Christmas...

and all through the house,
 nothing would fit me, not even a blouse;
 The cookies I'd nibbled, the eggnog I had to taste,
 at the holiday parties had gone to my waist;
 When I got on the scales there arose such a number!
 When I walked to the store (less a walk than a lumber),
 I'd remember the marvelous meals I'd prepared,
 The gravies and sauces and beef nicely rared;
 The wine and the rum balls; the bread and the cheese,
 and the way I'd never said, "No thank you, please."
 As I dressed myself in my husband's old shirt,
 and prepared once again to do battle with dirt,
 I said to myself, as only I can,
 "You can't spend a winter disguised as a man!"
 So, away with the last of the sour cream dip.
 Get rid of the fruit cake, every cracker and chip.
 Every last bit of food that I like must be banished,
 'til all the additional ounces have vanished.
 I won't have a cookie--not even a lick.
 I'll want only to chew on a long celery stick.
 I won't have hot biscuits, or corn bread, or pie,
 I'll munch on a carrot and quietly cry.
 I'm hungry, I'm lonesome, and life is a bore,
 But isn't that what January is for?
 Unable to giggle, no longer a riot.
 Happy New Year to all and to all a good diet!

Bridge Across the Water

On New Year's Day, 1914, a fellow called Tony Janus started the world's first passenger-carrying airline when he flew from St. Petersburg, Florida, to Tampa, just 19 miles across Tampa Bay. Since the plane, a flying boat, flew only 15 feet above the water, his only fare-paying passenger got a real bird's eye view of the bay! That passenger was prominent citizen of the area, George Gandy. Today there is a bridge named after him across Tampa Bay, which raises the inevitable question: did Mr. Gandy really enjoy his flight?
