TOASTING TO A NEW YEAR

Toasts have existed for almost as long as drinking itself. To help you bring in the New Year properly, here are some great Irish toasts.

- In the New Year, may your right hand always be stretched out in friendship but never in want.
- May you be in heaven a full half hour before the devil knows you're dead.
- May you be poor in misfortune, rich in blessings, slow to make enemies, quick to make friends. But rich or poor, quick or slow, may you know nothing but happiness from this day forward.
- May the roof above us never fall in, and may we friends gathered below never fall out.
- Here's to you and yours and to mine and ours, and if mine and ours ever come across you and yours, I hope you and yours will do as much for mine and ours as mine and ours have done for you and yours.
- May you have warm words on a cold evening, a full moon on a dark night, and the road downhill all the way to your door.
- May the Lord keep you in his hand and never close his fist too tight on you.

Honoring Martin Luther King, Jr.

Since the age of 17, Martin Luther King was a Baptist minister who dedicated his entire adult life to fighting racism and segregation in the United States. Influenced by Gandhi's example of nonviolent persuasion, he organized peaceful boycotts and demonstrations, including the Montgomery Bus Boycott in 1955. In 1963, King headed a massive civil rights campaign in Birmingham, Alabama. This crusade was followed by major drives for voter registration, desegregation, and better housing and education in the South. Honoring his hard work and fortitude in the civil rights movement, King was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1964. On April 4, 1968 he was assassinated in Memphis, Tennessee. Since 1986 the third Monday in January has been designated a legal holiday to honor this man of peace.
