EL PORTAL'S CHIEF OF POLICE

Car Break ins

Car break ins: Incredibly annoying. Anger provoking. Difficult to safeguard against...OR ARE THEY?! That will be the gist of this article as I sit here, writing it on 23 October 2019. I give this date because, as is often the case with car break ins, stats can (and most certainly will move) before this comes to publication.

First Some Statistical Data

It was recently brought up to me that car break ins are much higher than last year. That is absolutely not true...at least not through September 2019. In fact, comparing both years through September, there are ten less car break ins in 2019 than in 2018. There were 35 car break ins in 2018. I believe we should come in with less at the end of 2019.

It is important to understand that if there are, for instance, 10 car break ins in a small defined area over a few days or nights, there are not 10 separate offenders. In fact, there may only be one-two offenders. It is a small band that usually creates the most havoc. Along the lines, the one was to stop a property crime spike is to make one or two well positioned arrests. Often times, that offender(s) may not even be arrested for the specific crime he/she has been committing.

How is that? Well, let's say we have a rash of car break ins in a given area. Hence, we set up an undercover detail. Low and behold, we see a guy walking up and down the street at 0300 hours. He takes off running. We stop him. We arrest him for loitering and prowling because we did not see him break into any cars nor did he have any property on him that we could link to cars in the area.

So you ask, "why not compare his fingerprints?" I reply, "he is on camera on all his car break ins wearing a mask and gloves." So no fingerprints or video identification exist. But since his arrest, there are no more car break ins in that area. No doubt that was the guy. That is how we may arrest someone for a crime though not the one he had been committing.

There were seven car break ins in the small defined areas of NE 2 Avenue to NE 5 Avenue from 85 to 90 Street. These came during the first 14 days of September until we arrested an offender. Since then (at least up to today) there have been no more car break ins in this previously active area. That is forty days.

Will it last? Not likely. But for these forty days, the area has been shut down.

What Did the Police Do?

We worked a few undercover details over a variety of different dates and times. In marked units, we talked with numerous people, who were not breaking the law, but were out and about during the "witching hours" (as I call them) of 0130-0430. There was no reason to detain or stop and frisk. But by just driving by and saying "hello" or park and the end of the block carried a strong message that the police are out there and vigilant.

There is no crime walking around a neighborhood in the middle of the night. But one would be awfully naïve if they thought that a police officer (or even just a neighborhood resident) would not be mildly suspicious, if not curious, as to why this is taking place.

It is our job to find a fine balance between being suspicious, when situations warrant such, and ensuring that we remain fully within the Constitutional safeguards afforded to every American. Additionally, we have increased our uniform park and walk hours. Again, just being seen, on foot, particularly at night, adds a level of discomfort for anyone contemplating car burglary.

What can You (The Citizen) Do?

First and foremost, be nosy neighbors. Keep an eye out on your neighbors to each side. You should know when they are away; they, in turn, should know when you're away. I am sure you all get up at different times of the night for a variety of different reasons (some, numerous times). If each of you just looked out the window before returning to bed, you very well may see something suspicious that needs to be reported to police, via a 911 call. And yes, someone walking on the street or getting near cars at 0300 hours necessitates a 911 call.

You need to think proactively. Get a RING. At night turn the sound loud so if someone comes near the house you will hear it go off. Yes I know....What about if a car drives by? Well, you can set how far the RING goes out. If we are to defeat crime spikes, we must work together proactively to outsmart these criminals; we cannot be at the mercy of their thieving whims. That is what they hope for. But here is another point: What ever happened to car alarms? Did they go the way of voicemail or rotary phones? I mean, don't most cars have a car alarm? Which by and large means you need to lock the car door with the key fob. If the alarm is sensitive enough, if someone is messing with the door it will set the alarm off. We just need to be cognizant that when a car alarm goes off, on the block, we jump up, rush to the window, and check to see what is going on.

Look, two final things. There are locks on car doors for a reason. LOCK YOU CAR DOORS! And do not, REPEAT DO NOT LEAVE A FIREARM IN THE CAR! I ask this question: If you carry a firearm I am guessing it is for protection, right? So please tell me what is the point of separating yourself from that protection? You are in your house and your firearm remains in the car. And just you know, when you leave a gun in the car and it is stolen, you just turned a thief into an armed felony that now we may come across. With gun ownership comes great responsibility.

THE NEXT US CENSUS IS COMING IN 2020!

By April 1, 2020, every home will receive an invitation to participate in the 2020 Census. Once the invitation arrives, you should respond for your home in one of three ways: online, by phone, or by mail.

Not familiar with the Census or can't remember why we do it? The following information was taken from the US Census website: https://2020census.gov/en/what-is-2020-census.html

The 2020 Census counts every person living in the 50 states, District of Columbia, and five U.S. territories.

The count is mandated by the Constitution and conducted by the U.S. Census Bureau, a nonpartisan government agency. The 2020 Census counts the population in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, and five U.S. territories (Puerto Rico, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, Guam, and the U.S. Virgin Islands). Each home will receive an invitation to respond to a short questionnaire—online, by phone, or by mail. This will mark the first time that you will be able to respond to the census online.

The census provides critical data that lawmakers, business owners, teachers, and many others use to provide daily services, products, and support for you and your community. Every year, billions of dollars in federal funding go to hospitals, fire departments, schools, roads, and other resources based on census data.

The results of the census also determine the number of seats each state will have in the U.S. House of Representatives, and they are used to draw congressional and state legislative districts. It's also in the Constitution: Article 1, Section 2, mandates that the country conduct a count of its population once every 10 years. The 2020 Census will mark the 24th time that the country has counted its population since 1790.

Participating in the census is required by law, even if you recently completed another survey from the Census Bureau. A complete and accurate count is critical for you and your community, because the results of the 2020 Census will affect community funding, congressional representation, and more.

Want to get involved or know someone that does? The U.S. Census Bureau is recruiting thousands of people across the country to assist with the 2020 Census count. Miami-Dade County, Florida Pay Rates Per Hour: $14.00 - $17.50

*The pay rate above represents the range of pay rates for both office and census taker positions. Census takers also receive reimbursement for work-related mileage and expenses, where applicable.

The Village of El Portal will coordinate an "Infoshop" in early 2020 where you all can attend to learn more and can ask questions. Date will be scheduled soon.

DID YOU KNOW? VILLAGE OF EL PORTAL HISTORY:

"The Threads of History Enrich All Our Lives." The Little River/El Portal Tequesta Indian Mound - El Portal Burial Mound and El Portal Village site.

I decided to include some history on our Tequesta Indian Mound and sadly, there isn't that much information on this archeological zone and burial mound that I could find but the little that I did find is quite interesting and worth sharing with my fellow historic enthusiasts.

According to an article from the Sun Sentinel "in all, the Tequesta built 25 to 50 burial mounds between Lake Okeechobee and the Keys. Those that remain can be found in Everglades National Park, Big Cypress National Preserve, in Miami-Dade County, Biscayne National Park and in the Keys. Most are accessible to tourists." Unfortunately, our specific site was not mentioned but you can visit this link to read the entire story. https://www.sun-sentinel. com/news/fl-xpm-2014-03-31-fl-historic-indian-mound-20140331-story.html

Our Village website (http://elportalvillage.com/archives/) lists the Little River/El Portal Tequesta Indian Mound as one of the highest points in Miami-Dade and its history dating back to the year 600 when ancient Tequesta Indians migrated and settled at the Mound while passing by on the Little River. "The Mound was one of the few areas above Water. It was actually six to eight feet higher than it is presently. Miami-Dade County declared the Indian Mound a historic landmark in the 1920s. It was the first such archeological site to carry this honor in the County."

I own a copy of the Historic Northeast Dade Self-Guided Tour by the Junior League of Miami and in there it says that at present the mound is among the last burial mounds that remain in Miami-Dade County. The other archeological site dating back to the Tequesta Indians is under what is now the Hyatt Regency Miami Hotel on the Miami River. The self-guided tour also states that the burial mound represents nearly 1800 years of Indian habitation and that it was dedicated as a public park in the 1920's. The guide also says that the site includes at last four known sites: a prehistoric burial mound, Indian village, a mid-nineteenth century pioneer homesite and coontie mill (coontie is a native plant with an underground stem that yields a starch).

As I continued my research I found a blog post (https:// www.megalithic.co.uk/article.php?sid=27413) from Nov 2010 that included copies of two designation reports provided by the Miami-Dade Department of Planning and Zoning Office of Historic and Archaeological Resources. Following I share pictures of those reports.

Continuation of Significance:

probably associated with the Woods house site. A staircase carved into the oolitic limestone ledge just adjacent to the cellar probably led to the Woods house that must have been located directly upon the ledge. The carved-out cellar, situated only 15 feet from a once powerful spring, was probably used as a cool storage area for food and perishables.

Woods may have operated a coontie mill on the property. A study of 1925 aerial photographs indicate that earthworks, similar to those used for storage ponds for processing coontie, existed in the western portion of the zone. Portions of these earthworks and the mill still exist beneath the homes in that area.

COMMUNITY CONNECTEDNESS

THANK YOU El Portal! Our Village came together to help and support the Bahamas after Hurricane Dorian!

El Portal Police and Village Manager joined Horace Mann Middle School Administration and students for their 1st Annual Sandy Hook Promise 'Start with Hello Week' meet and greet. It's their, and our commitment to create a more connected inclusive school and and community - by preparing the students to make a difference in someone's life, and help them feel appreciated, included and valued.

FLORIDA CITY GOVERNMENT WEEK OCTOBER 21ST - 25TH

Florida City Government Week is a time for municipalities to provide and foster civic education, collaboration, volunteerism and more. It is also a time to recognize community stakeholders who have contributed to the community

Cities provide a higher level of service than most governments, yet many residents are unaware of how city services impact their lives. Through Florida City Government Week, we hope to bring awareness to city government's role in enhancing the quality of life in communities.

City Officials are encouraged to involve their local schools, businesses, and media in planning Florida City Government Week activities that engage through:

As such, during this week, some of El Portal leaders have made time to speak at local schools, host an open house for new residents, all in an effort to engage, educate and explain city structure and function.

Florida City Government Week is part of an ongoing effort sponsored by the Florida League of Cities to raise public awareness about the services that cities perform and to educate the public on how city government works.

Shout out to Officer Lopez, Chief Magnusson and Manager Alou for speaking to some young students about local government and their roles, followed by reading a book to them!
