Five Common CAR INSURANCE MISTAKES

Buying vehicle insurance is a necessary that can turn into a dreaded chore. It can take time to shop around to find the coverage and price that is right for you. If you have purchased a new car or want to change insurance companies for a better deal, remember to avoid these common mistakes.

1. While it may be convenient and save some time, don't go with the first company you contact. Plan on spending some time calling several carriers to find the best deal.

2. If you are in the market for a new car, do your homework ahead of time. The car of your dreams may be in your budget, but the insurance may not. Find out what it will cost to insure your car before you go car shopping.
3. Once you've settled on a carrier and policy, be sure to take the time to review and read the policy before you sign it. It may seem easier to just trust your agent has gone over all the important points, but it could cost you in the long run if you don't end up having the coverage you expected.
4. In order to save money, you may be tempted to negotiate a policy with lower limits, but this could leave you vulnerable in the event of a catastrophic accident. Everything of value you own--your car, home, and savings--could be at risk if you don't have adequate coverage. Be sure to have the right limits in place for your financial situation.
5. Finally, don't forget to get all the discounts available to you. Depending on your regional market, you may be able to get discounts for having a homeowner's policy with the same carrier, having anti-theft devices installed, insuring multiple vehicles with your carrier, and even having a teen driver with good grades. It never hurts to ask for all available discounts and could end up saving you big bucks.

Tasty & Easy Springtime Recipe Penne with Chicken and Asparagus

- 1 (16 ounce) package dried penne pasta
- 5 tablespoons olive oil, divided
- 2 skinless, boneless chicken breast cubed
- salt and pepper to taste
- garlic powder to taste
- 1/2 cup low-sodium chicken broth
- 1 bunch slender asparagus spears, trimmed, cut on diagonal into 1-inch pieces
- 1 clove garlic, thinly sliced
- 1/4 cup Parmesan cheese

1. Bring a large pot of lightly salted water to boil. Add pasta, and cook until al dente, about 8 to 10 minutes. Drain, and set aside.
2. Warm 3 tablespoons olive oil in a large skillet over medium-high heat. Stir in chicken, and season with salt, pepper, and garlic powder. Cook until chicken is cooked through and browned, about 5 minutes. Remove chicken to paper towels.
3. Pour chicken broth into the skillet. Then stir in asparagus, garlic, and a pinch more garlic powder, salt, and pepper. Cover, and steam until the asparagus is just tender, about 5 to 10 minutes. Return chicken to the skillet, and warm through.
4. Stir chicken mixture into pasta, and mix well. Let sit about 5 minutes. Drizzle with 2 tablespoons olive oil, stir again, then sprinkle with Parmesan cheese.
