DAD IS GREAT!

Quotations for Father's Day

- It is a wise father that knows his own child. - William Shakespeare
- When I was a boy of 14, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be 21, I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in seven years. - Mark Twain
- Fathers, like mothers, are not born. Men grow into fathers...and fathering is a very important stage in their development. - David M. Gottesman
- A man's children and his garden both reflect the amount of weeding done during the growing season. - Author Unknown
- It doesn't matter who my father was; it matters who I remember he was. - Anne Sexton
- For rarely are sons similar to their fathers: most are worse, and a few are better than their fathers. - Homer
- It's only when you grow up, and step back from him, or leave him for your own career and your own home...it's only then that you can measure his greatness and fully appreciate it. Pride reinforces love. - Margaret Truman
- You don't have to deserve your mother's love. You have to deserve your father's. - Robert Frost
- Blessed indeed is the man who hears many gentle voices call him father! - Lydia Maria Child
- The father who does not teach his son his duties is equally guilty with the son who neglects them. - Confucius
- You know, fathers just have a way of putting everything together. - Erika Cosby
- Be kind to thy father, for when thou were young, who loved thee so fondly as he? He caught the first accents that fell from thy tongue, and joined in thy innocent glee. - Margaret Courtney
- He who is taught to live upon little owes more to his father's wisdom than he who has a great deal left him does to his father's care. - William Penn
- One father is more than a hundred schoolmasters. - Herbert
- A father is a man who expects his son to be as good a man as he meant to be. - Frank A. Clark
- My father was frightened of his father, I was frightened of my father and I am damned well going to see to it that my children are frightened of me. - King George V
